

“The Negro is the child of two cultures—Africa and America. The problem is that in the search for wholeness all too many Negroes seek to embrace only one side of their natures.”

“The American Negro is neither totally African nor totally Western. He is Afro-American, a true hybrid, a combination of two cultures.”

Where Do We Go From Here: Chaos or Community? (1967) [New York: Harper]